Record Attendance Is Chalked Up at 85th Fair

—Step Nearer Class "B" Fair

All records were broken at Saanich Fair over the weekend, when an all-time high was marked by visitors to the annual exhibition at Saanichton. By mid-afternoon on Monday attendance had already exceeded the previous record chalked up last year and visitors were still steadily streaming in through the gates.

While attendance was well-up on last year, exhibits in almost all sections were apace. Officers of the fair expressed complete satisfaction with the entire week-end as the 85th year of the exhibition exceeded all others.

The fair was opened at midday on Saturday by L. W. Johnson, superintendent of farmers' institutes of the provincial department of agriculture.

Mr. Johnson expressed satisfaction with the steady development of the fair and commended the consistent improvement in the quality of exhibits.

Speaking from the platform, Albert Doney, president of the sponsoring body, North and South Saanich Agricultural Society, forecast the early dawning of the day when Saanich Fair would be promoted from a class "C" to a class "B" fair.

Directors' Plans
Mr. Doney later told The Review that the aim of the directors is to see the fair thus re-classified.

"The re-classification will bring greater outside assistance to the promoters and a vastly improved entertainment for spectators," he stated.

Mr. Doney was loud in his praise of the standards achieved this year and paid particular tribute to A. C. Howe, secretary-treasurer of the association, whose responsibility is the administration of the entire exhibition.

Highlight of the fair on Saturday was the square dancing, a novel feature directed by Frank Loveless. The events were shared by two dance groups and a number of groups volunteered from the audience. Dancers and spectators expressed particular commendation of the callers, whose unhesitating instructions served as an accompaniment to the music.

Hospital Is Discussed At Galiano

A representative group of the Organizing Committee for the proposed new Gulf Islands Hospital attended a meeting at Galiano recently, which had been arranged by Mrs. A. E. Seonnes. D. A. New was in the chair and an interesting discussion took place regarding the proposed forming of an Improvement District in the Gulf Islands to finance the building of a new hospital. Representatives were able to answer many questions but, unfortunately, hospital matters were overshadowed by the devastating news regarding the cancellation of the C.P.R. service to the Gulf Islands.

On the following day a meeting in connection with the proposed hospital was organized at Mayne Island by E. Murrell and C. R. Underhill with G. H. Maynard in the chair and attended by members of the organizing committee. A public meeting is scheduled for the Malton Hall, Ganges, tonight, Wednesday, at 8 o'clock.

Leisure Islands Laughter

AN ISLAND STORY BY THE LATE F. W. MARSH

Chapter LXX
NEWCOMERS
These younger newcomers, we found, were enthusiastically starting the cycle over again on a smaller scale and with a greater variety of opportunity. Jim Atterbury and his wife had been recent arrivals with their three young boys. What plans?

"Plenty," said Jim. "Now that I've built my home, I'm starting marine ways and a small shipyard for repairs and building new boats. Meanwhile I've got three acres in oats, a cow, a pig and a vegetable garden. Maybe I'll try a little fishing. To get by in a place like this a man has to do a bit of everything from plumbing to milking."

The old-timers on Mayne Island still outnumber the newcomers. Rugged pioneer Jack Atken who, with son Roy, and their mutual friends William the ox, runs sheep on his big farm, swears that the flower colors on Mayne Island are brighter than anywhere else.

"But," he admits, "we old-timers hang onto our land too tight. We ought to get more people in by dividing up acreage into small pieces

Callers were Ernest Livesey and Dawn Draper.

Fancy Dress

During the square dancing routines the children's fancy dress competition was paraded by Miss P. M. Baker. Of about 12 entries, Lois Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones, McTavish Road, was awarded first prize for her "Pierette". Judges were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hall.

The crowds on Saturday were evenly distributed between the square dancing and the western riding events. The latter are a regular feature and invariably gain a large audience as the horses are put through their paces.

Midway was under the direction of Sidney Rotary Club.

Attendance on Saturday was good, it was stated later, but it was entirely swamped by Monday's visitors. The two main entertainment features on Labor Day were the Highland events and the saddle horse show.

Hundreds of visitors milled through the Agricultural Hall to view the exhibits of garden produce and home cooking. Judges had already commented that the standard had never been higher.

A section which drew an impressive crowd was the exhibition of agricultural implements. This section was larger than last year and many varieties of implements were on show.

Throughout both days cattle and livestock displays and judging were maintained steadily. Among the livestock, rabbits and goats attracted extensive attention and the poultry came into its own more as absence of Newcastle disease permitted of extensive showing.

The fair closed at 6 p.m. on Monday as the last enthusiastic visitor left for home after contributing to a record fair for Saanichton.

Before the close of the day, President Doney and Secretary Howe were already planning for next year's fair and sorting out modifications that are planned to make it still more successful when the pioneer fair marks its 86th year.

Injured Man Is Convalescent

D. R. Renesse, West Saanich Road, North Saanich, who was injured recently when his car was in collision with an old model coupe on Patricia Bay Highway, is now released from hospital and is convalescing at home. Mr. Renesse suffered a broken collarbone, broken ribs and other injuries, when his car was completely destroyed.

FAST PROGRESS

One of the fastest building projects in Sidney took place this week, when C. D. Turner, of Turner's Sheet Metal, erected an apartment block above his premises between Friday of last week and the middle of this week.

THE DAISY ROAD

The more we saw of Mayne Island roads, the better we liked them. Any road on an island in spring is stimulating, with its fresh perennials of land and sea, and its greenery under white puffs of cloud against a blue sky. Many of these roads were lined with clumps of wild fern, tender green salad, and huckleberry, in what seemed like landscaped patterns. Between these and the smooth, grey highway were sometimes patches of English daisies.

When we ascended a less-travelled lane, by the side of a hill, on our

There Is Still Time

For five hours on Thursday afternoon and evening the Red Cross blood donor clinic will be in attendance at Sidney K.P. Hall on Fourth St.

There is still time for the residents of Central Saanich, North Saanich and Sidney to attend the clinic and make a donation. The Red Cross has already indicated that the cessation of hostilities in Korea will have no influence on the need for blood at home.

The clinic will be in attendance from 1.30 to 4.30 during the afternoon and from 7.00 until 9.00 in the evening.

The Red Cross is hoping to see 200 donors between the ages of 18 and 65 from the Peninsula.

Warm Month With Less Sunshine

The weather for August was warm, with a mean temperature of 66.5 degrees, as compared to a 39-year average of 61.9 degrees. The highest temperature was 79 degrees, recorded on August 14, and the lowest temperature, of 48.5 degrees, on August 29.

The sunshine was below average with 242.7 hours as compared to a 39-year average of 288.3 hours.

The rainfall was 0.45 inches, as compared to a 39-year average of 0.80 inches.

The heaviest precipitation in 24 hours was 0.24 inches on the 14th.

The evaporation from a free water surface was 1.13 inches.

Frequent light showers during the past two weeks have delayed threshing.

NEW SERVICE IF DISTRICT PAYS ALL COSTS

Brentwood Waterworks District will be permitted to take its new water line through Gore Park, along a modified road allowance, if the district will pay all costs involved in the survey of the new road.

Central Saanich council, on Tuesday evening, agreed to the proposal to re-route the road, provided no cost was incurred by the council.

Speaking on behalf of the waterworks, V. C. Dawson expressed regret that the council could only see the costs and fees involved.

"We have no responsibility for expenses incurred by the council," he reminded that body.

"We have already incurred a $25 expenditure in this regard," replied Reeve Sydney Pickles. "It is your responsibility."

The council stood by its guns and agreed to the route of the line only if the waterworks paid all expenses involved.

The new line is planned to supply water to the Benvenuto and Moodyville areas. Some sections are currently served by the I.L.C. Electric line, which is to be abandoned, and others rely on wells.

SCHOOL BONDS BELOW SAANICH

Announcement was made this week by the provincial government that school bonds representing an aggregate of $7,013,500 had been sold recently at 99.53. The syndicate purchasing the bonds was represented by A. E. Ames and Co. Ltd.

The sales were made under the Public Schools Construction Act, 1953. They were in serial form with maturities ranging from one to 20 years, bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest. The successful tender was considerably ahead of the provincial average before the provincial government decided early in the year to back such bonds.

The tenders were below those achieved when Saanich School District sold its bonds in respect of the last building by-law. The Saanich bonds were sold above their par value at that time. This was a rare occurrence and few school districts in the province have been able to match the sale.

IS IMPROVING
Condition of Mrs. Alec Gillespie, of the staff of Hotel Sidney Coffee Shop, is reported to be improving. Mrs. Gillespie was seriously injured when her car left the road at Chemainus and crashed into a house. Mrs. Gillespie is lying in the Royal Jubilee Hospital where she was taken shortly after the accident, on Friday.

Musician

ERIC V. EDWARDS

The North Saanich Choral Society will commence its activities for the coming season Tuesday, Sept. 15, in the North Saanich high school at 8 p.m.

The society has been very fortunate in again securing the services as conductor, Eric V. Edwards, L.R.S.M., A.R.C.T. Muriel Filby, A.T.C.M., will be the pianist.

A cordial welcome has been extended to prospective members who desire to become affiliated with this community organization.

They're Found Here But What Are They For?

Someone is suffering. An unknown resident of the area or visitor to Sidney has lost a number of stamps. It is possible he is unaware of that loss.

This week 10 blue stamps were handed in The Review office, having been found on a Sidney street.

The stamps are pretty, small and of little value outside their native San Francisco. They are marked "Sunset Merchants' Trading Stamp, San Francisco". Their purpose or value, if any, remain undisclosed.

IT IS PLEASANT TO RESIDE HERE

Veteran of the First World War and a member of the Vancouver city municipal staff for the past 28 years, Fred T. Pitcher has acquired the former home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Turner on Third St.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitcher chose to retire in Sidney because it "is such an attractive place to live".

Mr. Pitcher left his native Britain 43 years ago. He was wounded at Puchendaele in 1918 after serving four years with the 52nd Battalion.

The veteran also served in the reserve for five years during the Second World War. Mr. and Mrs. Pitcher lost a son in that war.

Impressive Record Of Rotary Gardens

School Garden Competition has been a Rotary project for 35 years by the Victoria Rotary Club, and for the past seven years in conjunction with the Sidney Rotary Club.

A total of 14 schools participate, nine under the auspices of Victoria club, and five under the Sidney club. Four pupils enter from each school, two girls and two boys. Seeds are provided free.

Three large silver cups and money prizes make this a competition of keen interest to the contestants. The Victoria club invite the pupils to a luncheon and entertainment, as their guests, which is a fitting finale to the competition. This season's display at the Saanich Fair has been the best for many years.

FISH BOAT BURNS AT GALIANO

The 40-foot gill net fish boat belonging to Ace Douglas, of Ladner, was destroyed by fire on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 3.

Mr. Douglas, who had experienced engine trouble on Wednesday evening, put into Whaler Bay, tying up to a small private float. On Thursday at approximately 3.15 he started his engine, which apparently backfired and burst into flames.

Mrs. M. Bain, whose home adjoins the float, put in an immediate call for help by phone. This was responded to by the local volunteer fire brigade. In the interim, Mr. Douglas endeavored to save his net and other gear, only to be driven off the boat by the fierceness of the blaze.

The prompt action of the fire brigade prevented the fire from spreading to the float and the house which is only a short distance away, but the boat is a total loss.

The loss is estimated at about $5,000, only partly covered by insurance.

Easing of Islands' Dilemma Is Announced by C.P.R. This Week

—Ferry Service to Be Augmented

Nurse Foote And Mrs. Heal's Ailing Toe

Mrs. G. E. Heal is a patient in Rest Haven. Her problems are clearly in good hands.

When Mrs. Heal left for the operating room last week to have a toe removed she was accompanied by Nurse Mrs. P. Foote.

Over 600 Entries at Fulford

For the 41st year in succession Fulford annual Fall Fair was staged at the Fulford Community Hall on Wednesday of last week, when more than 600 entries gained the commendation of hundreds of visitors.

The fair-day officially commenced at 1.30 p.m., when Dr. Weir, of the department of agriculture, opened the exhibition. Dr. Weir expressed his approval of the record maintained through the years by the fair association and of the high standard of exhibits and organization evident at this year's show.

Judging in the various classes included A. Litter, vegetables, farm produce and fruits; J. Crossley, Dominion Experimental Station, floral; Miss E. M. Brodd and Mrs. E. Kennard; homecooking; Mrs. A. T. Hardwick, needlework and home crafts; P. L. Watson, Ganges photographer, photography; Jack Ritchel, Deep Cove, painting and ceramics; C. W. Leggett, woodwork.

Among prize winners was Mrs. J. Taylor, of Fulford, who was awarded the door prize.

Refreshments during the course of the fair were served by the South Salt Spring Women's Institute. Various organizations of the community were represented in the different phases of the fair.

ZONING BY-LAW PLANNED SOON

Zoning by-law will be introduced in Central Saanich within the next 14 days.

Since the secession from Saanich the new municipality has been without any control of zoning. Councillor H. R. Brown is the chairman of the committee responsible for the drafting of the new by-law.

The decision to implement the regulations followed the application of Mrs. Violet Maxwell for a trade license to operate a tea room and store at her Merchants Road property.

The permit was refused on the grounds that the property had been condemned and was not yet accepted as reconstructed.

The building was condemned by the building inspector, P. Lomas, recently following a number of fires. The chimneys and wiring were considered faulty.

New Auto Court At Brentwood Planned

New auto court is planned in Brentwood. J. A. Smethurst obtained permission from Central Saanich council on Tuesday evening to construct his auto court nearer to the rear line of his property on Verdier Ave., than is allowed in the building by-law.

The auto court is at the foot of Verdier Ave. in the vicinity of the Mill Bay ferry wharf.

PROBLEMS TO BE THRESHED OUT

An important meeting to discuss transportation throughout the Gulf Islands generally has been arranged by the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce for Thursday evening of this week in Fulford. A dinner is scheduled for Mary Lee's Snack Bar at seven o'clock and the transportation discussion will start at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend. Other activities connected with the island development will be discussed as well.

ANNUAL MEETING

Saanich Progressive Conservatives will stage their annual meeting on Thursday, Sept. 17, in St. Andrew's Hall at 9 p.m. Officers will be elected and delegates appointed to the constituency convention.

Clouded skies over the Gulf Islands cleared somewhat on Tuesday as a result of a conference in Vancouver between island residents and senior west coast officials of the C.P.R.

The previously announced one day a week boat service to some of the islands will be augmented by other weekly boat trips, providing mail, passenger and freight services each Wednesday and Friday.

New schedules, effective after Sept. 26, will be as follows:

Wednesdays:
Ss. Princess of Alberni: leave Victoria at 8.30 a.m.; call at South Pender, Saturna, Hope Bay and proceed on to Vancouver.

Ss. Princess Norah: leave Vancouver at noon; call at Galiano, Mayne and Ganges and return to Vancouver. Port Washington will be included as a port of call when wharf construction is completed.

Fridays:
Ss. Princess of Alberni: leave Vancouver 8.30 a.m.; call at Galiano, Mayne, Hope Bay, Saturna and South Pender.

The delegation consisted of: Mrs. Grace Hume, South Pender; James Campbell, Saturna; J. B. Bridge, North Pender; G. H. Maynard, Mayne; Capt. I. G. Denroche, Galiano; and Gavin

Mout, Salt Spring Island. The delegation was met by William Manson, C.P.R. western vice-president; Capt. O. J. Williams, general manager of B.C. Coast Steamships; and other C.P.R. officials.

No promise was made to the delegation regarding an expanded summer schedule, but it was stated that the company would be ready to discuss next summer's schedule with the delegates at the end of October.

The delegation emphasized that because the C.P.R. had encouraged the islanders to press the federal government for extensive wharf reconstruction to accommodate the Ss. Princess Elaine and that this half a million dollar program had been completed, the company had a moral obligation to provide a useful and practical transportation service to the islands. The C.P.R. was urged to give careful and practical consideration to the matter and to formulate plans which will result in a guaranteed continuation of C.P.R. service throughout the Gulf Islands.

Mr. Mout told The Review on Wednesday that members of the delegation were cheered at the improvement to ferry service already announced by the C.P.R. They are looking forward to continuing the discussions at the end of October.

Islands Are Aroused By Original Curtailment

—Look to Alternative Transportation

Residents of the Canadian Gulf Islands, long served by the C.P.R., are seething with indignation at the company's recent announcement that it will restrict ferry services in future to one day a week operating from Vancouver and leaving South Pender Island, Salt Spring Island and the Port of Sidney out in the cold entirely.

The new restricted service is due to start on Sept. 27.

An angry mass meeting of delegates from the different islands embraced by the Gulf Islands Improvement Bureau was held at Galiano Lodge last Wednesday afternoon. President Mrs. Grace Hume, of South Pender, conducted the meeting, with Captain I. G. Denroche, of Galiano, secretary. Many interested residents from the different islands augmented the number of official delegates and all spoke freely and in ire.

James Campbell, well-known Saturna Island farmer, summed up the feelings of many: "We want a permanent and progressive service. At the request of the C.P.R. heavy expenditures have been made on wharfs at Saturna, Hope Bay, Ganges, Mayne, Sidney and Galiano. A contract is already let for reconstruction of the Port Washington wharf. Before this ambitious construction program has been completed, the service is withdrawn. It is a rank betrayal by the C.P.R. and directors of that company should be made fully aware of it. Money is available at Saturna to fight an aggressive campaign and we mean to battle tooth and nail."

"The C.P.R. has broken its word to us in the most flagrant way possible. We must insist on the promises being implemented. The people of Canada believed these promises and spent large sums of money as a result. Surely there must be some directors of the C.P.R. who will keep their promises. They must be forced to provide us a suitable service until some other arrangement can be made and then we'll be rid of the C.P.R. forever. I can conceive of no greater blow to C.P.R. prestige in western Canada than what has happened here in the Gulf Islands."

Tremendous Blow

W. L. Shirley, president of the North Pender Island Farmers' Institute, spoke in the same vein. He urged that government officials in Ottawa and Victoria be fully informed as to the situation in which the C.P.R. has levelled at the chin of the islanders.

Chas. Murrell and W. M. Greene, delegates from Mayne Island, were in complete agreement. A letter had already gone forward to the minister of transport contending that a breach of contract had been committed by the C.P.R.

Tom Carolyn, speaking for Galiano Island, urged that an adequate service to Vancouver be maintained. If this was denied the residents, however, he felt that a suitable daily service to Vancouver Island would be acceptable.

Mrs. Hume, speaking for South Pender Island, deplored the fact that her home island was to be denied all ferry service. Some transportation by sea should be provided at least until the bridge to North Pender is completed, she declared.

Dumping Ground
Captain Denroche, speaking for the Bureau, emphasized that the C.P.R. had long used the Gulf Islands as a "dumping ground" for old vessels. "He dipped into history to prove his point. Despite the fact that railway officials knew full well that the Ss. Princess Mary was wearing out, no effort was made to replace her. "We have always been hearing of ships which never sail," he said.

Gavin Mout, of Ganges, who was present with President Desmond Crofton and Vice-President Howard Chalk of the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, disclosed personal protests which he had made to C.P.R. officials at the sharp reduction of island service. He urged that the C.P.R. should continue ferry service to the islands, but stressed that the service should be an adequate one. He deplored the short 30 days' notice of transport termination which the company had given.

DONALD EASTON OF SIDNEY WEDS IN DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY
Baskets of Gladioli and seasonal blooms graced the altar of St. Peter's Church, Nanaimo, and pews were marked with satin bows and baby orchids, when Marie Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Henley, 229 Chelsea St., Nanaimo, exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony with Donald McKenzie, Easton son of Mr. and Mrs. James Easton, 821 Fifth St., Sidney, recently. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown featuring a bodice of French lace with long lily point sleeves. Her satin crinoline skirt was topped by a bouffant skirt of illusion net and centre panel of French lace studded with rhinestones. Fingertip veil was held in place by a rhinestone-studded headpiece. Bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty rosebuds and white stephanotis centred with a white camelia and white satin streamers.
Her matron of honor was Mrs. Alex Laird, who was attired in mauve net with matching lace and bolero. Bridesmaids were Miss Diana McColl and Miss Elaine Helm, while Miss Shirley Gannon was a dainty flower girl in pink net and her headpiece was identical with those of the senior attendants.
Bridesmaids were in green and yellow net with matching lace bolero. Each carried bouquets of circles of carnations centred with orchids.
Groom was supported by Bud Baillie and Gerry Henley. Ushers were Ray Henley and Jack Moore.
Memorial Hall of Nanaimo branch of the Canadian Legion was the scene of the gay reception that followed. Bride and groom received congratulations from the guests under a beautifully decorated archway of summer blooms.
Receiving the guests were parents of the bride and groom. Mrs. Henley was in a powder blue silk crepe and lace dress with navy accessories, wearing a corsage of white carnations and carnations. Mrs. Easton was in navy blue sheer with white accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations and camellias.
The bride's table held a beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake embedded in blue tulle. It was topped by a miniature bride and groom and bells from which came music of the Wedding March.
Honeymoon was spent on the mainland and for her going away costume the bride donned a dusky rose suit with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. They have taken up residence at 300 Holy Ave., Nanaimo.

Wesley Jones Takes First Prize in Derby
The North Saanich Service Club ladder derby came to a close on August 31, with a good list of salmon weighed in.
Wesley Jones topped the list with a 19-pound spring salmon, caught at Sidney Spit.
Charles Sansbury won second prize with a 16-pound salmon, while Phil Schulz, of James Island, won third prize with a weight of 10.10.
Hidden weight prizes were won by Phil Schulz, W. M. Tripp, Mrs. Kay Pearson, C. M. Pearson, H. E. Nunn and Mrs. L. Tripp.
The ladder fish-off was held on Sunday, Sept. 6, and was won by Charles Sansbury with a salmon weighing 8 pounds 13 ounces. This year the club awarded all cash prizes.

Anglican Ladies Learn of History
The first meeting of the season of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Church of England in Canada, afternoon branch, was held at the rectory, the home of Mrs. R. Melville, on Wednesday, Sept. 2. There were 15 members present.
The Rev. R. Melville opened the meeting with scripture and prayers, and gave a talk on the good work the women's auxiliaries have done through the years. This is the jubilee year of the organization.
Mrs. R. C. Jolley read the bulletin and Mrs. H. Graham gave a talk on the history of the first Anglican church in Victoria and down through the ages.
Mrs. W. Thompson spoke very briefly and thanked all who were so kind and sympathetic in the loss of her husband. Also for the beautiful floral tributes.
The minutes of the last meeting in June were read and adopted. Several members are not back from their holidays.
Mrs. Melville served a dainty lunch at the close of the meeting.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jolly, Amelia Ave., with Mrs. I. Bell as co-hostess, Wednesday, Oct. 7.

Hockey Enthusiasts To Gather in Sidney

SAANICH PENINSULA BRANCH NO. 37 LEGION NEWS

(By J. W. Tibbets)

The summer holidays for 1953 are fast coming to a close, and the first regular meeting of your branch will take place in the Legion clubroom on September 14 at 8 p.m.

Pictures will be shown. Our community hall will no doubt come in for some discussion, and I might say that it is very heartening to see such good community spirit and effort on this project. I think it will be safe to say that all organizations and clubs of this district are giving their best efforts to this objective.

Your branch put on a dance in the Legion Hall on Monday evening (Labor Day), all profits will be for the community hall.

At 11 o'clock our good friend Fred Gilbert, president of the North Saanich Rod and Gun Club, supervised the drawing for prizes on the fifth annual salmon derby.

Thanks are certainly due to the Rod and Gun Club and all the people who worked so hard on this effort towards our community hall. It is just a thought, but I think it would be a good idea if all the organizations of the district would now pool their efforts and put on a big night. Probably call it Community Hall Night. What do you think?

The old faithfuls of the Legion, both men and women, were on the job at the Saanich Fair, dishing out the refreshments.

SAANICHTON

Miss Marilyn Bellamy, of Mount Newton Cross Road, is visiting relatives in Vancouver this week.

Miss Joan Looy returned to her home on Wallace Drive this past week after spending a two-weeks' vacation in Vancouver. Her grandmother, Mrs. Bevan, accompanied her.

Saanichton Girl Guides will hold their first fall meeting next week under the leadership of Mrs. A. R. Mills. Their lieutenant, Miss Norma Carmichael, has offered the use of wooded property for their meetings, because of the lack of a hall in Saanichton. Janey Carmichael and Marion Deans spent a week at Saanich Division Girl Guide Camp at Milnes Landing, recently.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Farrell, Simpson Road, were Mr. and Mrs. W. Farrell and family of Ioca, B.C., and Miss Mary Culp, Edmonton, Alta.

Saanichton Wolf Cubs will resume their meetings on Monday in their clearing in the woods, property of E. Lyons. Mrs. A. R. Mills will be assisted by Acting Akela Shirley Polson, Baloo Dave Johnston, and Bagheera Heather Wishart. Alex Martin, Ken Lawley and Alan Bompas attended Cub Camp at Camp Bernard, Sooke, in August. Bob Allen and Alec Martin gained their Second Cap Star and will receive their Leaping Wolf Badges when they enter the Keating Scout Troop. Scoutmaster A. R. Mills is unable to hold evening meetings with Saanichton Scouts, and it is hoped they will join Keating Troop this fall.

Miss E. A. Blotch, R.N., of Seattle, was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. L. Farrell, Simpson Road, over the holiday week-end.

DON'T SEND A BOY ...
TO DO A MAN'S WORK!

The old saying was never more true than in the case of television.

In a fringe area like ours, the sensible thing to do is to have a real fringe area receiver for complete viewing satisfaction, and ELECTROHOME, Canada's finest fringe area receiver, has the 23 tubes required to convert weak, fringe area signals to clear, stable pictures.

For example: The extra tube in the 2-stage video amplifiers ensures clear, bright pictures. . . . The extra tube in the sound gives ELECTROHOME its "concert hall" tone . . . The extra tube in the noise gating circuit eliminates instability and tearing due to noise generated by car ignition, motors, etc.

ELECTROHOME'S extras all add up to more pleasure from your T.V. in a fringe area.

THE PICTURE IS CLEARER

LOT of the Gulf Islanders was this week improved. From the isolation of one service each week, a number of the islands have been placed on a basis of two. A direct connection with the mainland has been promised by the C.P.R., whereby residents of the islands will be permitted to leave their homes and return in less than a week.

The picture is by no means perfect. The new announcement is a stop-gap and not an answer. It signifies, however, the value of discussion. In the first place islanders were back to the stage of a century ago, when manual effort or ingenuity were the only means of travelling to and from the islands. Today, after a lengthy discussion of the problems with the transportation company, a modified service has been promised.

There has been emphasis placed on the term "expanding service" since The Review first took up the cudgel on behalf of the islands several years ago. If the term has not yet been relegated to history, then the future could be considerably worse than it is. If the transportation company is bearing this term in mind, then it is possible that the future of islands transportation service may well come up to the requirements of residents.

There exists no possibility of error on this point. The present promised service is hopelessly inadequate. It is a stop-gap and nothing more. While the original plan offered islanders but one stage from utter isolation the present proposal merely takes them two stages from that condition.

The fact that a modified service has been promised following representations being made to the company concerned, indicates that further meetings with C.P.R. officials may well bear greater fruit in the future.

In the meantime the Gulf Islands Improvement Bureau and other active groups through the islands are still getting their teeth into the problem and are unlikely to let go until the present problems have been thoroughly threshed out into a regular, adequate, "expanded" service.

THE APPEAL FOR BLOOD

AN appeal has been launched by the Red Cross for blood. The organization will attend at Sidney on Thursday afternoon and evening and every facility will be provided to make the donation of blood both simple and convenient.

The Red Cross is looking to the entire area of North Saanich, Central Saanich and Sidney to provide 200 donors. It is not a matter of coercion or obligation. As the term, donor, suggests, it is entirely voluntary. At the same time it is a challenge to the residents of the area to come up to the standards set by the Red Cross.

Primarily the donation of blood is a gesture to assist others. The immediate need is not that of the donor. Nevertheless, any blood donor may find that his need for blood may come at any time. A serious operation or an accident may result in an unexpected demand for blood.

It would be grossly unfair to those who have regularly donated blood to suggest that the personal element is foremost in mind at these times. It is, however, a factor to be considered by those who are teetering, uncertain whether to go to the minor trouble of making the donation.

If every resident between the ages of 18 and 65 were to donate blood when requested there would never be a shortage. It is impossible to maintain an adequate supply from the small number of donors who consistently answer the call. The call is extended to those who do not habitually answer it. It is those potential donors who are now urged to attend the clinic on Thursday and contribute to the major means of saving lives known today.

THE LADY MINTO HOSPITAL

THE REVIEW knows of no community on earth which is not materially benefited by a good hospital. When the institution is modern and well equipped, its benefit to the community which it serves is very great. As the hospital ages and deteriorates, its value is lessened. Then comes the day when progressive citizens must lay aggressive plans for a replacement for the aging structure.

The building which has served for many years as the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital has now reached the stage of obsolescence. The community served by the institution is accordingly at the crossroads. Modernization of the hospital will be costly in dollars. But to allow the institution to decay further could well be costly in health and even in lives.

Trustees of the Lady Minto Hospital have made a detailed study of the situation. They have evolved a plan. Their proposal is fully deserving of careful study. We are confident that merit will be found in their recommendations.

Letters to the Editor

A RETROGRADE STEP

Sir: The recent statement for C.P.S. regarding their future schedule for the Gulf Islands and North Saanich will bring much discussion and thought from many on these islands and adjacent areas.

That this is a retrograde step there can only be drawn these conclusions: firstly the route as served by the Elaine does not pay, and secondly the efforts of the Gulf Islands Ferry Company towards a ferry linking Vesuvius-Crofton and toward trade routes with Nanaimo, are taken by C.P.S. to eliminate the necessity for further service to Salt Spring Island.

Now if the Gulf Islands Ferry Company have a solution towards the treatment of this abandoned route (eg) from North Saanich Islands, Vancouver connection, then it is their duty to inform the public residents who are affected by the said route.

In all fairness to anyone living here on Salt Spring Island or worse still the other islands, a connection only via Nanaimo to Vancouver is purely foolish.

What is definitely needed and with all expediency is a fast and commodious service from Swartz Bay, V.I. to Steveston on the mainland, calling at these following ports: Beaver Point, Salt Spring Island, Port Washington, Pender Island, Galliano Island and Mayne Island. Saturna would presumably be served by a feeder boat to Hope Bay, Pender Island; South Pender, having gotten the bridge (a desperate necessity) across the canal, would use Port Washington.

The above route has been under much discussion for many years. If the Sidney Chamber of Commerce and the Salt Spring Chamber of Commerce and the Gulf Islands Improvement Bureau had pooled their efforts to this end, I believe an adequate service to all these points would now be in service. However we may like to feature the home port, nevertheless, we can no state ourselves and our brothers as well by too much selfishness. Sidney has never been an adequate all-year port, and it never will be, even though $500,000 a year be spent on breakwaters, etc. Therefore, let that money be spent to a more useful purpose and obtain for North Saanich and even southern Vancouver Island an all-year port with quick and efficient service to Vancouver. The same applies to the Gulf Islands Ferry Company, instead of trying to get two small ferries subsidized, let them work for a fast and equitable service for all these points to Vancouver and Vancouver Island.

The Gulf Islands are now, with the exception of Salt Spring, worse off in regards transportation than they were 50 years ago.

Land values will fall and local economy will and has deteriorated by this neglect.

It would seem then that we, the residents of the areas affected, should press for an immediate survey into why these things have come to pass.

Two years ago, Col. Desmond Crofton of Ganges, and myself, looked into the possibility of returning this area back into the original constituency that it was years ago, namely, Gulf Island-North Saanich. I believe now that a constituency of the Gulf Islands proper could be sustained, and I can only hope that groups and our provincial member, Dr. Larry Giovando, will press at the forthcoming session to this end.

It is probably insignificant to point out, but since the Patullo administration relocated this area as the Nanaimo-Gulf Islands, the economy of the area has gradually dwindled until at the present time we find ourselves in a remarkably chaotic situation. It was an avowed part of the Conservative platform that the member seek to the redistribution of this area, but I did not see anything regarding same at the discussions in the abortive spring session.

In closing may I again ask that all residents and groups of this area give the foregoing matter their most careful and prudent concern, so that we may once again have good transportation service and adequate representation in the B.C. cabinet.

D. D. FRASER,

Beaver Point District,
Salt Spring Island, B.C.,
September 2, 1953.

REQUIRES EXPLANATION

Editor, Review.

Sir:

The withdrawal of the Ss. Princess Elaine from the Gulf Islands service constitutes an obvious and glaring breach of faith on the part of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. While I was always of the opinion that the Princess Elaine was too large a vessel for the route, nevertheless, one would assume that the C.P.R. would know what they were doing when they placed her in the Gulf Islands service with the stipulation that the federal government spend some half a million dollars on enlarged wharves for the purpose of accommodating her. Unfortunately, nowadays the B.C. Coast Service is run from Montreal and not Victoria even, I believe, to the printing of menu cards. Such a thing would not have occurred in the days of Captain Troup and some of his successors who still retained the full power of management and the making of binding decisions. These men had much local knowledge. The present manager is not to blame.

About a year ago I wrote your paper giving some of the history of the Gulf Islands transportation service and I pointed out that at that time when the Ss. Princess Mary was withdrawn, the service had deteriorated steadily in the last 30 years and that the Islands got a really far better service in the days of the old "Joan" and even the "Iriquois". It began to deteriorate steadily after the Joan was with withdrawn and now both Sidney and Salt Spring Island have no direct connection with Vancouver. How Salt Spring could be eliminated is beyond my comprehension as is also the case in regard to Sidney. The fact of the matter is that the C.P.R. has no ship really suitable for this service. A vessel about the size of the M.V. Motor Princess, smaller than the Joan and larger than the Iriquois would be suitable and the federal government would not have had to go to the expense above referred to. What is required is a small, fast, but seaworthy vessel about the size of the Motor Princess but the C.P.R. will not go to the expense of meeting the safety requirements and are using her as a freighter.

Unless the C.P.R. is prepared to supply the Islands with a suitable vessel and daily service, then I think the residents of the area are justified in seeking their transportation from another source. The Union Steamship Company has vessels of the right size and this company happens to be controlled by the Canadian Pacific. The Black Ball Line might be persuaded to take over this service, and failing that, or even preferably to that, Gavin Mout and his associates might be approached. I am personally of the opinion that the Canadian Pacific is not interested in these routes or this type of service, but why they did not say so earlier should require some explanation from them.

A FEDERAL MATTER

Editor, Review.

Sir:

The recent announcement of the winter and 1954 service by the Canadian Pacific Railway, is very serious, especially to the Gulf Islands. When the Vancouver-Gulf Islands Sidney service went into effect we all felt that it would be the answer to our transportation difficulties, but financially it has not proved successful.

Bells Of Bow To Ring Again

(Ottawa Journal)

"Oranges and lemons," said the Bells of St. Clements. "When will you pay me?" said the Bells of Old Bailey. "I do not know," said the Great Bell of Bow. And on went the little song for its 15 verses, rhyming the old churches of London.

The song has lived with the churches gone or broken. St. Clements at the entrance of Fleet St., where the Danes were buried, was smashed by bombs and its minister, who gave the children oranges and lemons once a year, died of a broken heart.

The golden figure of Justice on the tower of Old Bailey, where courts now sit, rose high above the ruins of Ludgate Hill. On up past St. Paul's stood the skeleton tower of Mary-le-Bow, the Bow Bells silenced by the Nazi raiders.

Those born within sound of Bow Bells can call themselves Cockneys, and "Cockney" once a term of contempt, has now become a title of proud courage. When the bombs came down, tearing away the little homes to expose Roman walls built 2,000 years ago, the Cockneys shook a fist at the sky, swallowed another "cupper tea" and went about their work, unshaken by disaster.

This fall, work begins on restoring the church of Mary-le-Bow and once again the bells will ring. And when they do, the rejoicing will not alone be in Cheapside streets or along the lanes of the old City. It will spread about the world, rising into a song of thankfulness for peace and an end to sore trial bravely borne.

Best Customer

(New York World-Telegram & Sun)
When the tariff commission was considering a partial embargo on Canadian oats—its decision has not yet been rendered—a lawyer for the grain dealer phoned quite neatly the real question involved.

"How are Canadians to get the money to buy things from us if we cut down on what they can sell here?" he asked.

When it is considered that Canada is our best customer and consistently buys more from us than it sells, that question takes on quite a significance.

Last year Canada bought $2,700,000 worth of goods from the United States, and sold us only $2,400,000,000 worth.

Even in farm products a similar ratio maintains. And now the tariff commission is considering cutting down Canadian oat sales—which have been running to $50,000,000 a year—to less than $20,000,000.

A certain amount of give and take is necessary in international matters, and intelligent judgment is essential. Even though these Canadian oats do compete with our domestic product, the net effect obviously is small and is hardly worth considering in view of the greater need for sensible and mutually beneficial trade relations with a friendly neighbor.

Girls As "Scenery"

(Brandon Sun)

Some girls go to the mountains to see the scenery, but more go to the bathing beaches to be the scenery, which is the most fun.

Unfair to Gulf Islands

(Vancouver Sun)

Gulf Island residents have reason to feel double-crossed by the C.P.R. plans to slash steamer service from four trips a week to a single run late this month.

They've feared just such a cut in service ever since the big Ss. Princess Elaine replaced a small vessel sold by the company two years ago. But each time they expressed doubt that the C.P.R. could afford to continue operating the Elaine in such low traffic service they've been smoothly reassured by C.P.R. officials.

The solution of this problem lies in Ottawa, because our federal government will be compelled to raise the trade and commerce subsidy, and the same applies to the mail contract.

We have genuinely got to admit the Canadian Pacific Railway has been most generous, in view of the fact they have been losing money annually on this operation. Should they be compelled to pass out of the picture, it will be a case of our federal government putting one of their ships in service here until we get on an even keel with populations.

Canada has the strictest shipping regulations in the world, and the requirements for passenger craft crossing the Gulf of Georgia, calls for a much larger steamer than is required. Federal subsidies paid to shipping companies on the Atlantic seaboard are really generous, but only one-fifth of the annual amount comes to the Pacific seaboard. It is up to our federal members to bring this fact before the house when it convenes.

With the wonderful climate and scenery we have to offer, and low taxation, one cannot in a way understand why the populations on the lesser islands is not increasing, but this may be overcome when electricity can be had.

It is quite apparent, however, there is a form of cannibalism prevalent on many of the islands which must be eliminated. A "munt" on the lesser islands are family hotels which would allow prospective buyers a chance to look around for a suitable site, and get acquainted generally.

Reflections From the Past

20 YEARS AGO

Dr. W. Newton was elected president of the North and South Saanich Horticultural Society at the annual meeting on Thursday evening in the Wesley Hall. L. T. Taylor, an active member of the society and past president for a number of years, resigned from that office owing to his proposed South African tour planned for next spring. Other officers elected were, vice-president, Alex MacDonald; secretary, Mrs. E. L. Hammond; treasurer, J. J. White; committee, L. E. Taylor, A. W. Hollands, J. E. Boshier, C. E. Toomer, J. A. Nunn, Mrs. J. J. White, Miss Helen Horth and William Boshier.

Ladies' Aid held the monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Miss H. Dean, Ganges. Among members present were Mrs. J. Mout, Mrs. W. M. Mout, Mrs. R. Toynbee, Mrs. E. Parsons, Mrs. R. Young, Mrs. H. Bond, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. H. Nobbs, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. H. Long and Mrs. Fletcher.

Captains' cup was won by A. Deildal in the play-offs at Ardmore Golf Club recently. Miss Diana Fraser was awarded the J. J. White cup, when she scored a new ladies' record of 37 for the nine holes. Matches are now being played for the championships. Among those competing are Mrs. Deildal, P. Hope, W. T. Sisson and J. C. Anderson. The ladies competing are Miss Fraser, Mrs. W. T. Sisson, Mrs. McIlraith and Mrs. Gamble.

Chief feature of the opening meeting of the Pender Island Women's Institute in Hope Bay Hall on Wednesday was a "book tea" arranged by Mrs. F. Moore and Mrs. A. H. Menzies. Winners were Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Mrs. P. H. Grimmer.

Hatching Duck Eggs Capitalistic Practice

(Windsor Star)

Swift passage of time is illustrated by a story from Babylon, N.Y., telling of the hen which hatched a setting of duck eggs. It described her bewilderment when these unnatural offspring took to the water like—well, like ducks.

Thirty years ago such occurrences were commonplace on Ontario farms. Many housewives didn't bother keeping a pair of ducks over winter, but did like a few ducks each year for eating purposes. So they would buy a setting of duck eggs from a neighbor and put them under a clucking hen. The hen did the job of hatching them quite satisfactorily.

She wouldn't seem to evince much surprise or dismay about her strange brood until the little ones found a stream or pond. In they would go, paddling around with dignified enjoyment. The hen would get into a dither, cluck and plead with them to come out. They would pay no attention swimming until willing to come out of their own accord. Soon the hen would adjust herself to the apparent craziness of her brood, and would busy herself feeding or dusting herself in the sand while the ducks had their swim.

Many pulp and paper limits contain today more wood than they did 20, 30, or 40 years ago.

Mrs. Falconer was awarded the consolation prize. Mrs. S. P. Corbett, president, outlined the pointers she had gained from serving at two fairs as a judge.

Motor Princess took her last farewell of Sidney on Sunday afternoon. She sailed for Steveston for the last time this year. She has operated on the service for the past three months. The Quilene, plying between Sidney and Anacortes, was taken off for the season on Monday.

Mrs. Clark, of Victoria, has been spending a few days on Salt Spring Island recently. She was the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Akerman, Beaver Point Road, Fulford.

25 YEARS AGO

One of the earliest pioneers of Salt Spring Island passed away on Thursday at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. He was William Shannon Whims, aged 85, who had resided on the island since he was 10 years of age. He leaves three sons and three daughters and 23 grandchildren. Mr. Whims settled on the island with his family in 1853.

Wanted, a good girl, Seagull Inn.—Adv.

J. J. White, Roy Brethour and Henry Brethour left last week via motor for a trip to the Lillooet district. They will visit in Vancouver on the return trip.

T. Lidgate was elected president of the Sidney Social Club at the annual meeting on Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. T. Harrison was elected honorary president at the same time. Other officers elected include vice-president, N. Fralick; secretary-treasurer, R. N. MacAulay; committee, Mrs. Lidgate and S. MacDonald. Mr. Lidgate and Jerry Jackson were prize-winners at the "500" drive which followed.

Constable Hadley, of the Sidney detachment, B.C. Provincial Police, is investigating reports of the theft of flowers from graves in the cemetery at Patricia Bay.

Owing to the death of the president of the North Saanich Golf Club, John Law, competitions for the Captain's cup will not be held as planned.

A large party of Mayne Island residents returned to the island on Sunday after visiting the New Westminster Exhibition. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. S. Robson, D. Bennett, F. Heck and Mr. Odberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Case-Morris and their two daughters left Ganges last week for Victoria, where they will reside for the next several months.

The City of Bellingham has been taken off the Sidney-Anacortes ferry service. The City of Angeles is still carrying on until the close of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, former residents of Pender Island some years ago, were visitors at the home of Chinese gardener, residing on the property of G. Sluggett at Clark Road, West Saanich, went berserk on Thursday evening and fired a number of wild shots before he was taken into custody by Saanich police. Miss T. Akerman left on Friday for Seattle, from Fulford. She will attend high school in the American city.

On Monday, Sept. 10, a total eclipse of the sun will take place and may be seen on the Islands area at about 1 p.m. onwards. Persons watching the sun at this point should use dark or smoked glasses.

Immigrating to Canada in September to go into the importing business is a Yorkshire businessman who believes there is a big market here for small British firms that can't afford to send representatives abroad. He is Jack Crane, founder of a fruit bottling firm in the Yorkshire town of Wakefield, and he sails from Liverpool on September 8 aboard the Ss. Empress of Scotland with his wife, 18-year-old son and 10-year-old daughter. Crane intends to start his new business in London, Ont., where his eldest daughter already lives with her Canadian husband, and intends to handle anything from a pin to a locomotive.

INVENTION FOR USING TURBO-JET AS BRAKE

A British invention for enabling turbo-jet engines to be used for braking purposes after the aircraft has landed is nearing the stage of practical application. These jet de-viators will shorten the landing run without causing wear on wheel brakes and tires and will minimize the chances of tire blowouts.

THEY BLAME WRONG WASP

Large numbers of householders are complaining of an insect which is probably not here. The summer has brought exceptional numbers of wasps and the incidence of stings this year has been universally higher than has been the case for many years.

The householders who refer to the offensive yellow flies as hornets are probably laboring under a misapprehension. The hornet, The Review learns, is rarely, if ever, found on the North American continent. The so-called hornet is a wasp.

Apart from its characteristic of stinging at slight provocation, the wasp has few features to appeal to the community it graces. Its feeding on small insects serves to reduce the numbers of other, preying insects.

The sting of the wasp is used in its normal course to paralyze its victims. The wasp will gather insects as large as itself and will sting them to paralyze, but not to kill. In this manner the young wasp can feed from the victim without undertaking the costly installation of a deep-freeze plant.

The sting of a wasp is probably due to the natural impulse to paralyze the victim, even a human. The Review is informed. The sting is painful but rarely dangerous except in large numbers.

Receipts of Small Eggs Increasing

Following is the weekly poultry market report furnished by the Dominion Poultry Marketing Board at Vancouver.

While prices remain unchanged, the market here is barely steady, as receipts of "A" mediums and smalls are increasing at weakening prices.
One hundred cases of "A" smalls were shipped to Calgary at 47 cents.
Receipts moved up a further three per cent, but large size are still short with prairie lot arrivals filling needs.
Sales are steady, both locally and up-coast.

Poultry market is quite active, few supplies are increasing and plenty of light and heavy chicken is being marketed.

Rags still make the finest paper.

An Ancient Seat

Is Cure For Modern "Tenigue"

(By Muriel D. Wilson)

Mrs. Wilson

I'm not sure what started me thinking about rocking chairs
... perhaps it was all the tired people who have been guests at Solimar this summer. Rocking chairs might be the answer to some of this sick world's ills. Leisure is defined in the dictionary as "freedom from work or occupation, ease, free time." But, now, in tune with the speed at which we live, our leisure is being turned into an occupation. Propaga-nda on every side urges us to further and further activities ... learn folk dancing, play games, learn a new language, learn to play an instrument, take up painting, leather work or ceramics, find a new enthusiasm. The rocking chair has long since been relegated to the attic.

With the banishment of the rock-ing chair we seem to have lost the art or ability to relax. We rush physically all day and we rush mentally half the night ... we can't stop. A famous psychologist said recently: "Don't try to make the mind and the body work all the time. For every big effort you make, or accomplishment you achieve you are entitled to an alternative period or temporary re

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $125.32.

Preliminary arrangements were made for the chief fall event, the Turkey Dinner, to be sponsored, jointly, by the W.A. and Evening Circle and held on Thanksgiving Day, October 12, in the Mahon Hall, tickets, at the usual price, $1.25, will be on sale early next month and the usual large number of members and friends is anticipated.

At the next meeting of the organization, which will take place on Thursday, October 1, at the home of Alex Hogg, Vesuvius Bay, a shower will be held to help with the providing of suitable articles for the Fall Sale of Work in November. Tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Hogg and Mrs. Jack Foster.

Fish Catch To August Lower Than Last Year

Preliminary catch statistics for the month of July give loadings valued at $8,743,000. This represents a decrease in dollar value of nearly eight per cent from last July although the volume caught was slightly greater. Salmon landings were the principal catch, with sockeye valued at $6,055,000, and springs, bluebacks and coho accounting for most of the remainder.

Halibut landings were valued at slightly over half a million dollars.

The canned salmon pack, as at August 22, totals 1,012,929 cases compared to 1,107,969 cases at this date in 1952. The major changes in species packed show a gain in sockeye, coho and chums but a sizeable reduction in pinks.

Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

Onions are not among the easiest vegetables to grow. Germination is sometimes poor or else the soil fertility does not seem to be to their liking. On the other hand, they may appear to be coming along well and downy mildew strikes with drastic results. This is a crop where your worries never seem to be over, because, even though the onions may have yielded well, loss in storage may follow, and is sometimes extensive.

Assuming that the onions have grown well, and are commencing to ripen in the field, the question may be asked, "Is there anything that can be done to ensure good storage?" First of all, keep the onions as dry as possible throughout the harvesting operation. If the onion tops have not died down, break them over with the fingers. After a few days the onions may be loosened with a fork and laid in rows.

Following this, they may be cured in the field for a week or so, turning them over after two or three days. They may be completely cured outdoors under favorable weather conditions, good air circulation being the most important requirement.

Failing this, they should be cured under cover with gentle heat, laying them on slatted shelves. When thoroughly cured they may be readily cleaned, after which they should be stored under cool, dry conditions.

Remove Canes

It would seem to be good practice to remove at once the old logan canes that have fruited this year.

LEGION LADIES' PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS

In honor of Mrs. I. Devine who, accompanied by her two daughters, was leaving the Island on Sunday to make her home in Vancouver, Mrs. A. M. Brown, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Salt Spring Island Legion, entertained the executive at a farewell party given at her home, Scott Road, Ganges.

The floral decorations of the rooms were carried out with chrysanthemums in shades of gold and brown and during the evening the president on behalf of the L.A., presented the guest of honor with a bouquet and a brass flower container as a token of appreciation of her faithful work both as a member of the organization and its standard bearer. The president accompanied the gift with a short speech conveying to her good wishes of all present, which was most suitably responded to by the departing guest.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by the secretary, Mrs. Ernie Booth, and Mrs. Austin Wilson presided at the supper table.

RETAIL SALES FOR JUNE SHOW INCREASE

Sales for the month of June totaled $116,970,000 or 1.3 per cent greater than June, 1952.

This is a relatively small increase compared to the national average increase of 5.7 per cent. Similarly, the cumulative totals of retail trade for the first half of this year show an increase of 4.2 per cent in British Columbia compared to 6.5 per cent in Canada.

It has been noted, however, that department store sales in this province for July and also for the first week of August are reversing the previous trend and showing percentage increases greater than those experienced in the rest of Canada.

get a little more for them but you will spoil the bulb. Believe me, it doesn't pay, leave the leaves on and next year you will get flowers, equally good or better.

"I try to plant in September and if the weather has been dry I leave the clothes off until the ground has had a good soaking. After that little attention is needed apart from weeding. I would not say that tulips were anything like as profitable and you run the risk of Fire (unless you lift every year). The public in this part of the world seem to like bi-colored flowers like Cordell Hull and Her Grace (tulips). In both cases (tulips and narcissus) I put four rows to a Growers' Barn (large size cloche) and plant about three inches apart."

Note: At the Saanichton Station, cloched or frame covered tulips, narcissus and hyacinths flower about 10 days to two weeks before those without the glass protection.

HAVE A WORD FOR IT

... WE MEAN the magic word that tells a mule to get going. It probably worked better than usual, recently, when Greek mule-drivers had to transport into the isolated interior, roofing materials needed for the construction of refugee shelters. The government purchased 2,000 tons of aluminum for the purpose — and incidentally licked the transportation problem.

Another nice thing about aluminum's lightness is that a given poundage goes two to three times as far as with other metals. It often means that aluminum, with all its advantages, actually costs less, too. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Good Deeds you may have done unknowingly

1. Here's a new home you may have helped provide for one of your neighbours — if you are a life insurance policyholder. For part of your premium money is invested by your life insurance company in ways that provide funds for building not only houses, but schools, roads, power plants, other developments.

3. Ever help a man get a job? You may have — unknowingly. For life insurance money, invested in ways that enable an industry to expand, has played an important part in providing new jobs for many workers — including, perhaps, yourself.

4. As a life insurance policyholder, you do all your fellow-citizens a service. For the financial security you've provided for your family reduces the chance of their ever becoming a burden to others. The more protection you own, the more that chance is reduced.

In all these ways, millions of life insurance policyholders are building security for their future — and helping to make Canada a better land to live in!

DISTINGUISHED WAR VETERAN OF SALT SPRING ISLAND IS CALLED

The death occurred on Friday, Sept. 4 of Major Frank Cecil Turner, D.S.O. who passed away in the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital, Ganges, in his 85th year.

Major Turner was born in Peebles, and as a young man left the Old Country for Australia, where he farmed for many years. He returned to England on the outbreak of hostilities, enlisted with the Cheshire Regiment and served in the South African War, 1900 to 1902. On his arrival in Africa he was given his commission and later his Captaincy.

During the war he received his Distinguished Service Order and was twice mentioned in Despatches.

On demobilization, in 1906, he came to Canada, where he was a resident of High River, Alberta, and later in B.C. he took up ranching in Aspen Grove.

Settled on Salt Spring In 1914 he served with the Lord Strathcona Horse throughout World War I, receiving his Majority. He was demobilized in 1919 and on return to B.C. made his home on Salt Spring Island.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Sept. 7 in St. Mark's Church, Salt Spring Island with Ven. G. H. Holmes officiating. Mrs. G. B. Young was at the organ, the 23rd psalm was sung and the hymn "Fight the Good Fight."

Beautiful wreaths and other floral tributes were received and many residents followed the flag-draped casket to St. Mark's Cemetery, where interment took place, the pall bearers being Lieut.-Col. Desmond Crofton, Group-Capt. A. R. Layard, W. Hele, F. A. E. Morris, Graham Shove and W. M. Palmer.

Surviving are his wife, Betty, at Ganges, one daughter, Mrs. Zelen Kropinski, Ganges, and two grandsons in Lancing, Sussex, England.

LADIES AT GALIANO OPEN NEW SEASON

St. Margaret's Ladies' Guild held its first meeting for the present season on Wednesday evening, Sept. 2, at the home of Mrs. B. P. Russell with the president, Mrs. L. T. Bellhouse, in the chair.

The design for the pews, which the guild is giving to the new church, was chosen and it is hoped to have work on them commenced at once.

Arrangements were made for the expected visit on Wednesday, Sept. 9, from the ladies of St. Peter's Guild, of Pender Island.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. A. New.

residents of the islands affected. "I see it as a terrible blow to C.P.R. prestige in the west," said Mr. Moutat. "Great development will occur in these islands in the next five years. If the C.P.R. doesn't want to operate the service, some other company will and the latter will reap the harvest," he declared.

Uneconomical

Oswald New, of Galiano and Vancouver, president of Coast Ferries, operators of the Brentwood-Mill Bay ferry, pointed out that it was not economically feasible for the C.P.R. to operate such a large vessel as the Ss. Princess Elaine on the islands run. He felt it more logical to connect the islands in a daily service with Vancouver.

Mr. New was prepared to operate a 365-ton steamship between Swartz Bay or Brentwood and Nanaimo. It would make the trip northbound one day, calling at the various islands en route, and return over the same route on the following day. No subsidy would be necessary but Mr. New would not welcome a competing service during the winter months.

S. Corbett, well known Hope Bay merchant, felt that a ferry connection with Vancouver was highly desirable and practically essential. He agreed that strong pressure should be brought on the C.P.R. to continue an adequate service with Vancouver.

W. W. Lynd, Q.C., of Estevan, Sask., who operates a modern tourist centre on North Pender Island, agreed that every effort should be made to have the C.P.R. continue adequate service for at least three months while the problem could be grappled with by the islanders. He was confident of the future growth and development of the islands but emphasized that a good boat service was essential.

By resolution it was finally agreed that strong pressure should be put on the C.P.R. Delegates refused to believe that the notice of sharp reduction of service to the islands was the final decision of the company. One delegate from each island will be named as a committee to personally interview responsible C.P.R. officials and to press the case in the strongest possible manner. Arrangements were made for adequate financing of the committee so that no stone will be left unturned in the quest for an expanding ferry service for the islands.

MORE ABOUT LEISURE

way to the Cecil Paynes, the daisies took over the whole space except for the wheel ruts. Where the sun slanted directly onto the lane, the daisies stood up in their beds of grass, their faces turned toward it.

The Paynes proved to be the kind of people to whom such roads should lead. They were in love with flowers, particularly with carnations whose culture they had studied and turned into a business. We found their flower-bordered home in a small valley withdrawn from a bay on Navy Channel.

Cecil was a tall, slim man, beyond middle age, with gentle brown eyes and the permanently tanned skin of a childhood spent in India. His wife was cheerfully pink-and-blond. They took us to their favorite perch on high rocks looking across Navy Channel towards North Pender Island. We spoke of the daisies on the road and her blue eyes lit up.

"I did a bit of verse on those daisies," she said, and later found part of it for us:

"How came Dan Chaucer's daisies here
The flowers of ancient English fields
And lanes that knew the Roman's feet?
What homesick settler cleared this land
And, hoeing in his first rough field
Scattered their seeds with homely wheat?
The flowers that little children love
Pink-tipped and white, and golden eyed,
Waiting to kiss small tripping feet?"

Cecil Payne tended towards the mystic, although we heard he had been a Vancouver City golf champion, a Canadian billiard champion, and a county cricketer in England.

Was it possible to materialize thought? Cecil Payne believed it was, although the spiritual preparation required was probably beyond most of us. Spiritual growth was both slow and elusive.

"But I am quite satisfied on one point," he said. "Apart from the petty irritations inseparable from life, a quiet and lovely environment like this induces a favorable serenity both consciously and subconsciously. That was the chief reason why we came here. We never enjoyed a noisy existence."

He gave me a quick glance and laughed. "Don't think it's all been quiet and easy, though. This place was quite overgrown, when we came. I chopped down 200 thistles in one spot without moving."

That was hard to believe, looking at the orderly beds of carnations, the myriads of other brilliant flowers, and the ornamental fishpond. Linger, reluctant to leave this lovely garden, Steph asked Cecil Payne, "Did I hear you say that some carnations are not scented? I thought all carnations had perfume."

So did I but I didn't admit it. I waited for Cecil's ruling. "No carnations with yellow grounds have scent. For instance, there's the Border Yellow or Margaret Dixon."

I winced. I hadn't even known there were yellow carnations. I thought they were all red, pink—or well, carnation colors as on cans of evaporated milk (maroon), White Knight, Dusky Maid (terracotta), W. B. Cranfield (red), and goodness knows how many more kinds. One of us, at least, felt very humble as we parted from the Paynes to return along the daisy road. Steph was silent too, for quite a while. She switched from carnations back to daisies. "Who was it, we heard, brought daisy seeds from England and planted them here?" she enquired.

"Not here," I corrected, trying to rise from my humility. "It was near the wharf. Tom Collinson was supposed to have brought them over. You know who Tom Collinson was, don't you?" I said.

"Wasn't he the big, good-looking man with large feet?"

"Yes. Size 14. He was Mayne Island's first postmaster, Mrs. Naylor's father, and friend-in-need whenever someone fell ill and could not get a doctor. He used to row out into Active Pass in the early days and take off passengers and mail."

Steph suggested: "Let's drop in at Grandview Lodge and see if we can catch Mrs. Naylor home. She has a picture of Tom."

A PATRIARCH

Mrs. Naylor was home. On our previous calls she had been out fishing in the bay, her favorite pastime. We didn't have to ask for Tom Collinson's picture because it was on the wall beside the comfortable old-fashioned fireplace in the parlor. It showed Tom to be as big as his reputation, sitting at his ease in a chair out-of-doors. His long, white beard made him look like a patriarch.

Mrs. Naylor built the hotel nearly 20 years ago at the suggestion of travellers.

"But it's hard now to run a place like this," she said. "I can't get either sufficient help or supplies." There was deep perplexity in her brown eyes. "Now I have to do the outside work myself. I can't afford expensive help. So, until things improve, I can't take in any visitors."

Despite her troubles, only touches of grey showed in her black hair. She was broad shouldered and shapely. As a young girl she had danced professionally in Victoria. She showed us a picture of herself in dancing costume.

"Now this is my home. I love it. I like having people around." She went on, "I like having the hotel open. But what am I to do? I've had to pull nails out of one fence to fix another." She took us through the hotel rooms, all empty but clean and well-kept. "I don't know how things will turn out," she said.

NEW FIELD OF ENDEAVOR FOR KEATING FIRM

A new and expanding business in Central Saanich is K. E. Stanlake Co., which is featuring the sale and maintenance of television sets at Keating. Ken Stanlake, proprietor of the new company, is well known as the operator of Stanlake and Young cold storage lockers at Keating.

Stanlake and Young was opened eight years ago as the first exclusive modern locker plant on Vancouver Island. Today there are eight. The plant has been expanded considerably since that time.

Mr. Stanlake, who is thoroughly experienced in television work, is the agent for the Saanich Peninsula for Electrohome, the oldest manufacturers of radio equipment in Canada. Their modern plant is at Kitchener, Ont.

The television equipment is attractively displayed in a new showroom adjacent to the cold storage plant.

CLOUDS FAIL TO DIM TOURIST TRADE HERE

Clouds over the July holiday scene failed to dim British Columbia's reputation as a favorite attraction for American tourists. Peak-of-season figures, released recently revealed a three per cent increase in vehicle entries from the United States as compared with last July's record figure.

Undaunted by unseasonable weather throughout the Pacific northwest, 48,503 motorists received travellers' vehicle permits for July visits of longer than 48 hours. This is 1,430 more than the total of 47,073 cars which crossed the border in the same month last year. The new figure boosted British Columbia's visitor-total to 152,255 automobile entries for the first seven months of the year, an increase of 8,194 over the 144,061 permits issued up to the end of July, 1952.

This gives the province a six per cent lead over last season's traffic in its drive towards a new record total for the year.

CIVIL DEFENSE PLANS FOR SALT SPRING ISLAND ARE DRAWN UP

Organization of Salt Spring Island as part of the Greater Victoria and aid area for civil defence was discussed by Brigadier G. A. McCarter, deputy provincial civil defence co-ordinator, in an address recently to island residents at Ganags.

Speaking before a meeting at Harbour House, Brig. McCarter said: "It is extremely unlikely that our presumed enemy has a bomb in his stockpile with Salt Spring's name on it. Nevertheless, upon attack, are chased, they get rid of their bomb loads whenever and however they can. One thing is certain: they don't take them back home."

In the event of Victoria, as a main target area, being attacked, Salt Spring Island would serve as a transit point for evacuees, he stated.

Presiding at the meeting of various local organizations was O. Leigh, chairman of the civil defence disaster relief committee of the

LOTS OF FISH AT FULFORD FOR SALMON DERBY

Fish were plentiful on Sunday, Sept. 6, for the staging of the sixth annual Fulford salmon derby.

W. Hobday brought in the winning fish, 19 lbs. 13½ ozs., which took the men's first prize of a rod and reel and the Langley Trophy cup.

Mr. Hobday was followed closely by Mrs. E. Lacy's 19 lbs. 9 oz. fish, which took the ladies' first prize of rod and reel.

The juniors' first prize of rod and reel was taken by Teddy Akerman. Other prize winners included Mrs. F. Maxwell, 17 lbs. 3 ozs.; Graham Shove, 11½ lbs.; Donald Corbett, 10; Bill Samson, W. H. Bradley, George Fyvie, R. Edmonds, Leslie Jacques, R. W. Taylor, Mrs. Shove, M. Bulman, C. Stone, S. Kaye, F. Downey, A. Alton, L. Hamilton, W. L. Coopie, Mrs. Banks, P. Crofton, F. Fowler and C. Hamilton.

Consolation prizes on the ticket draw were won by: 1. M. Gyves, silver service and tray; 2. Don Fraser, electric kettle; 3. Norman Harris, cigarette case; 4. Leslie Fraser, tackle box.

Large Attendance

About 160 persons attended the salmon derby dance held in the Fulford Community Hall on Friday, Sept. 4.

Old-time dancing was enjoyed until 10.30 p.m., with Miss B. Hamilton supplying the music and A. J. Hepburn calling for the squares. Terstar's orchestra played for the remainder of the evening.

Following the balloon dance at midnight, supper was served by the South Salt Spring W.I.

Reeve Sydney Pickles pointed out that the whole idea had been mooted by Central Saanich a year ago, without response from any of the municipalities now pressing the idea.

The reeve recommended following the example of other municipalities. "I suggest we adopt the recommendation directly in line with our own recommendation of a year ago, when no one would co-operate," he urged.

"Everywhere there is a crosswalk marked on the street, the motorist should slow down in front of schools," warned Harry Duker, president of the B.C. Automobile Association, recently. "Even if there is no 15-mile-per-hour speed limit the motorist should slow down and take care. The grade one youngsters sometimes aren't used to busy streets, the B.C.A.A. asks the motorists to give the kids a break. Watch for them, go slowly, and when in doubt, stop."

"It isn't only the young pedestrians in front of the schools that provide a hazard to the motorist," continued Mr. Duker. "The boys and girls on bicycles can get into accidents just as quickly. Often the motorist doesn't give these youngsters enough consideration. They aren't experienced in traffic and their judgment is not as quick as the motorists. Don't crowd the cyclists. Give them a safe chance."

"The B.C.A.A. reminds car owners that young people learn by example. Let all motorists set them an example of safe and considerate driving."

Picture Changes in 12 Months, Says Reeve

Restriction of the sale and discharge of fireworks, planned by the police commissions of Greater Victoria recently received the endorsement of Central Saanich council on Tuesday evening.

A later public meeting is planned to appoint a civil defence officer for the island.

Guests at the luncheon included the following from Victoria: Brig. McCarter, Col. Maurice Turner, president of the Victoria Red Cross; Col. J. Q. Gillan, chairman of the Red Cross disaster relief services; Ray Lamont, civil defence co-ordinator for the Greater Victoria mutual aid area; Dr. A. N. Beattie, provincial health officer; E. L. Rimmer, provincial welfare officer; and Miss M. Macdonald, civil defence health liaison officer.

New Support

Peninsula Players, young amateur theatrical company in North Saanich, gained the support of a veteran of the stage last week, when Clement May, of Deep Cove, offered his services. Mr. May, internationally acclaimed Australian Dickensian actor has played in major cities throughout the English-speaking world. The newcomer to the company has proffered a one-act play of his own devising, complete with sets.

Members of the cast of the new play, "Laburnum Grove", will commence rehearsals on Wednesday evening. The play will be presented towards the end of October, but no definite date has yet been settled.

Three one-act plays are also to be prepared by the amateur company. They will be in the form of "workshop plays" and will include members of the company not taking part in Laburnum Grove.

During his initial address Mr. May outlined the importance of deportment and voice reproduction. He gave an extensive lecture on dramatics and promised his every support to the group.

Dairy Promotion Shows Prospects Of High Figures

With over $160,000 already received from Dairy Farmers of Canada's fourth June Advertising Set-aside, officials feel that prospects are good for the product promotion fund arising to record proportions this year. Highest annual Set-aside previously was in 1950 when dairy farmers across Canada made a voluntary deduction from June milk and cream cheques amounting to $344,000, to be used for product promotion, public relations and research. Objective of the 1953 Set-aside was $400,000.

Only national farm organization in Canada to institute a continuing program in product promotion, Dairy Farmers of Canada point to some solid achievements from their program. They indicate better industry relations accruing from the program. For the first time in the history of the Canadian dairy industry, all branches of the industry are jointly financing a program of fundamental research. Involved in this project which is being carried forward at Macdonald College, Quebec, are Dairy Farmers of Canada, National Dairy Council of Canada, the Associated Milk Foundations and the Canadian Dairy Industry Supplier's Association. Current research is investigating certain life-giving factors in butterfat which have not yet been isolated by scientists.

TIP JET ENGINE FOR HELICOPTER

Britain's first helicopter blade-tip jet engine was recently announced. Developed by Saunders Roe, the new engine is just short of four feet long and is shaped something like a very large cigarette folder. Intended primarily for military helicopters, the Saro, as the engine is named, can be run on almost any fuel and gives a thrust of 45 lbs. The makers are already working on an engine that will be capable of 120 lbs. A 10,000-lb. load could be lifted by five of these engines, fitted to a five-blade rotor. It is less than two months since an announcement that two other British firms—Fairley and Bristol—had been given a government contract to build the prototype twin-engine helicopter suitable for commercial airline service. One of these, the Fairley Rotodyne, is powered by two turbine engines but in this case the exhaust from the engines is fed from the fuselage up through the blades and out of the blade tips to impart thrust.

Veterans' Officer To Retire October

S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator of the sub-district of Vancouver Island for the department of veterans' affairs has announced his impending retirement in October.

The name of Major Okell has long been synonymous among veterans' organizations with D.V.A. Announcing his resignation, Major Okell expressed his satisfaction with the co-operation he has received in the past.

"I feel public relations have been excellent on the Island," he said, "because representatives of all veterans' organizations have united to give the utmost effect to our many excellent regulations."

The press has consistently been ready to assist, he added.

"We have worked as a team," concluded his statement, "and I know that it will continue that way with my successor."

Succeeding Major Okell will be J. S. Adam. A native of Victoria, Mr. Adam was a member of the teaching profession before joining the staff of the department. He enlisted with the Canadian Scottish as a private in 1927. In 1939 he was called up and served with the rank of Captain.

During the Second World War he saw service in Italy and on the European continent elsewhere. He finished the war with the rank of Colonel, having been awarded the O.B.E. and E.D.

Mr. Adam has been district personnel officer with the department for the past eight years.

In the world only Brazil and Russia have more forestland than Canada and nine-tenths of Canadian forests stand on publicly-owned Crown land.

As with farm crops, the period of tree growth varies greatly.

FOOTBALL FANS TO BE PROVIDED WITH SPECIAL RADIO PROGRAM

Despite the fact that the B.C. Lions aren't slated to enter the W.I.R.F.U. until the fall of '54, local football enthusiasts won't have to wait to enjoy their share of this season's Western Conference football.

Every Monday and Saturday, starting August 29, CKWX will carry the major game of the day between the Calgary Stampede, the Saskatchewan Roughriders, the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, and the Edmonton Eskimos, last year's Western Conference finalists.

A battery of top-flight Western Canadian sports-casters will provide colorful play-by-play descriptions of every quarter, with the regular half-time summaries, game highlights and interviews with leading sports writers and football personalities.

CKWX will broadcast two games a week during the season, plus the Western Canadian finals and the Grey Cup game from Varsity Stadium in Toronto.

With the B.C. Lions becoming more and more a reality every day, football fans on the West Coast won't miss a single game during this important season.

NEW BRITISH RADAR

Revolutionary developments in the field of radar engineering are embodied in a marine radar set, recently demonstrated in London, England, to members of the press, aboard the motor yacht "Navigator." The set—called Decca 45—introduces high ratio pulsing for the first time in any merchant marine radar. It is a great stride forward in reconciling mariners' conflicting requirements of the best possible performance at long range on the one hand, and the highest picture definition at short range for navigation in congested waters on the other. The set enables targets to be seen clearly in heavy rain and snow conditions.

Newsprint is Canada's chief export and manufactured product.
